

Winchester Community Event

Join Commissioner Chris Giunchigliani and discover the wonders, intriguing history and future of the town of Winchester at a special community event.

This FREE event is a chance to learn more about what makes this community an attractive place to live. Also, learn about opportunities for home ownership and affordable rental housing through Clark County and partnering non-profit organizations.

Those who attend the event, will enjoy a selection of delicious finger foods from local restaurants. The event will showcase the community's charm and history.

Hosted by Commissioner Giunchigliani,
Clark County's Community Resource Management
Division and Parks and Recreation Department

Date: Saturday July 28, 2012

Time: 11AM-1PM

Address: Winchester Cultural Center
